

Carbon neutrality can be defined as “making or resulting in no net release of carbon dioxide into the atmosphere, especially as a result of carbon offsetting.”

Is Latex Green a Carbon Neutralized Manufacturing Facility?

Latex Green is the World’s First and only Carbon neutralized Latex foam manufacturing plant that produces 100% Natural and Certified Organic latex foam mattress cores, toppers and bed pillows. All products are certified by Control Union of Netherlands.

Control Union is a well-accepted certification institute which operates in 70 countries over 6 continents.

What are the benefits of Carbon Neutral?

- Each latex product that you buy from Latex green contributes towards making our atmosphere more clean & green. This cause of action will make you a proud shareholder of reducing Global Warming.
- Global Warming is the fastest growing concern on the earth today affecting our total environmental system causing issues that are harmful for all living organism in this plant.
- Carbon neutrality is the best solution to reduce and prevent global warming as it is the process which reduces the Green House Gas emissions and drive the manufactures to think Green.

Partnering with Latex Green you can;

- Make a genuine effort in reducing Global Warming
- Offer your customer truly an environmentally friendly latex product
- Add value to your business over your competitors.
- Increase revenue, profits and market value
- Meet increasing consumer demand for environmentally friendly products.
- Through which, involve your customers to increase revenue, profitability, market share and think GREEN

